Crayon Box Jacket Workshop

Pattern by Chris Bylsma

This jacket is “a short, boxy, Chanel-style jacket knit one square at a time – but without seams – in a one-of-a-kind blend of colors and fibers.”

We will be hosting this workshop during the month of September. This jacket is perfect for using up your scrap yarn as the pattern uses not only many colors, but many yarn weights and textures. We will also have yarn kits available for you in various color schemes. It's your choice - make a jacket for an adult or for a child.

Dates and times for this workshop will be posted soon.
